Metadata definition

Tom Rochette <tom.rochette@coreteks.org>

December 21, 2025 — 7b672543

1 Created at

The date of creation of the article.

2 Updated at

The date the article was last edited.

3 Status

The state of completion of the article.

- Draft: In the process of collecting ideas.
- In progress: In the process of updating the structure of the article and its content. Most articles on this website will be in this state.
- Finished: Unlikely that the content will be touched/revised.

4 Readability

A field to help readers quickly assess whether an article is appropriate for their level of expertise and available attention.

See Readability Index for details.

5 Importance

How important the topic is to my eyes (the last time the importance value was set).

1. Low
2. Medium
3. High

6 Confidence

An indicator of my confidence on the topic. Confidence can also be established at the level of statements.

1. Impossible, $P(e) = 0$
2. Almost unlikely, $P(e) < 0.05$
3. Very unlikely, $P(e) < 0.25$
4. Unlikely, $P(e) < 0.5$
5. Uncertain, $P(e) == 0.5$

6. Likely, P(e) > 0.5
7. Very likely, P(e) >= 0.75
8. Almost likely, P(e) >= 0.95
9. Certain/Definite, P(e) = 1

7 References

- http://www.gwern.net/About#confidence-tags
- http://natalia.grabar.free.fr/cours/reyna-MC1981.pdf